

Nekromantix, Anaheim After Dark

The day is over the gates are shut the park is closed there is no signs of life we're tied together by a true lovers knot I'm no more still forever you'll be my wife

During day a playground for the young at night a gateway to the other side even in death our love is real and strong I'm gone forever but you'll always be my bride

In this twilight zone just you and I
it's peaceful and quiet in Anaheim After Dark
we're all alone
under the midnight sky true love & kisses
in Anaheim After Dark

Each night we meet at this place watching the sun set and the moon rise the memories of me you embrace I ceased to exist but this wedlock never dies
