

Nekromantix, Fantazma

Goodnight my sweet love She whispers and touched me I closed my eyes and her tears down her cheek land on my chin
Oh no no no
The night I killed her she swore she would come back for me
She said I can't be dead without you I'll haunt you 'til you swing from that tree

The only way out is death I realized as time goes by I have to give in to her ghastly demand to see me hang high
oh no no no
every night I get a visit from her disembodied soul her restless ghost wants me to pay for the life I stole all she wants is to watch me hanging see me dangling at the end of a rope from the old apple tree

Oh so gently she puts a rope around my neck she assures me the pain will be over in a sec
oh no no no
death is forever life is not and soon we'll be together in spirit for always and for eternity watch us hanging
see us dangling
at the end of the ropes from the old apple tree watch us hanging
see us dangling
side by side now, my soul mate Fantazma and me
