

Nekromantix, Life Is A Grave & I Dig It!

I dig the tomb of love hate, laughter & moan a mausoleum that holds the key to the unknown

And as the ditch expands demons arise from the depths of the pit the more your mind demands the more you get

Life is a Grave & I dig it! I dig it!
A casket stuffed with greatness and things that hurt
Life is a Grave & I dig it! I dig it!
Watch me digging
I'm going straight for the dirt Do ya Dig?

I dig the crypt of sorrow joy, desire & play a pyramid that hold the answers to creation and decay

And as the trench opens wide angels appears from the abyss the less you in yourself confide the more you will miss
