

Nellie McKay, Won't U Please B Nice

If you would sit
oh so close to me
that would be nice
like it's supposed to be if you don't I'll slit your throat so won't you please be nice if you would hug your arms right around me that would be snug
if we part I'll eat your heart

Oh don't you love this romancing know that it's your life you're chancing isn't it nice
now you've married me
sugar and spice
if you go i'll get your dough

Stop with your jazz oratory I only listen to top forty N'Sync rules
together we'll always live no sacrifice
we'll vote conservative if you run I'll pull a gun give me head or you'll be dead salute the flag or I'll call you a fag oh won't you please be nice
