

Nelson, Tears Of Pain

Another lonely night
I can't fight this feeling
Lying in my cold, dark room alone

In a dream I see your face
You say you're never leaving
Then I wake up to find you're gone

Now, I know it's true
That only you can stop these

Chorus:
Tears of pain running down my face
I'll never be the same
Will I make it through another night?
You left and tore my soul apart
Now, nothing else remains but tears of pain

Here in my memories
We will last forever
It seems so close I can almost taste your love

If I must go down this endless road with you
I'll just lose control
And I'd break every rule

For one more chance at you
Cause only you can stop these

Chorus

Whoa, tears of pain running down my face
I'll never be the same
Will I make it through another night?
The emptiness still lingers on
I guess that I'm to blame
When you left it tore my soul apart
Now, nothing else remains but tears of pain
