

Nena, Don't you think i'm a lady

You say, I am a rambler
Flipping all around
You say I look like a scarecrow
What I want you don't know
You say I spend the nighttime
With many other guys
I don't understand your morals
I don't wanna tell you lies
Don't you think I'm a lady?
Maybe baby!
You say "think of your future";
But I'm thinking of my life
No babe, I am a rambler
Don't wanna be a stupid housewife
My pulse trembles like a boogie
My life is rock'n 'roll
Your prayers and your rules
They don't reach me at all
Hey guy!
"Mhmm ?"
Don't you think that I'm a lady?
"Not really!"
Don't you think I am a lady?
"Maybe baby!"
I don't think I'm a lady!
You say I spend the nighttime
With many other guys
I don't understand your morals
I don't wanna tell you lies - come on baby now!
Don't you think...
Baby,baby, well, good-bye baby
I don't think I am a, am a lady
