

Neva Dinova, Ahh

I can't sleep enough
I can still taste what I drank
And no one's keeping up
What's that mean? what's that mean?

I've been trying to capture
The piece of art you're after
It seems like it's extinct
I'll check it when I hit the peak

And it's the words you're after
Watch their meanings shatter
The words break in my ear
I love you but it doesn't matter

I wasn't feeling my best
And I put my friends to the test
I wasn't waking up well
You couldn't tell if I was gone

I can't wait, I won't change
Cause I'm living on mars
It don't hurt when it rains
It just shorts out my guitars

(ahhhhhh)

Do the best you can do
Keep this in your hat or
Whisper in my ear
I love you but it doesn't matter

Do the best you can do
Keep this in your hat or
Whisper in my ear
I love you but it doesn't matter
