

Neva Dinova, Poison

This mess becomes beneath us now we cannot sweat this poison out it's in my skin and in my mouth and when I sing these lies come out The hooks are deep but so is this lake princess please make mistakes make it seem like I've done right so I can sleep well tonight And it ain't the cost and you ain't the boss it ain't like I'm not on your side and it ain't like I'm trying to keep you when the secret is you want another guy you're on my mind You squeeze them ideas out and I just forgot math got to make some space for pain 'cause them words just left your mouth boarded on a train bound for my destination brain welcome in, we've been waiting we've been waiting Drinking blood don't keep me young it's just the taste on my tongue it makes me stay up late and talk destroy yourself, what the fuck...
