

Never Heard Of It, Finger On The Trigger

So tell me what you want to be
Tell me are you're listening?
Tell me all the things you felt before you let them exaggerated
Tell me what you're fighting for
Do you have a reason?
Let me turn you inside out of your inside out of me here before

You can't side the same with an open door
It's taking me and bringing me back to Outside walking to the corner store
If I can just make it through the door

Whoa, whoa
Whoa, whoa
My finger stuck on the trigger
Your hands are up in the air
Whoa, whoa
Whoa, whoa
I'm losing energy
I'm going anywhere

So tell me who you want to be
Tell me are you're listening?
I'll tell you all the things I felt before I let them control my hatred
Tell me what you're waiting for
I'll tell you that I'm leaving
I'm leaving while I'm inside out
You turned me inside out

I won't take your poison anymore
My mind is my cigarette burning
Empty whiskey bottles on the floor
Trying to make it through the night

Whoa, whoa
Whoa, whoa
My finger stuck on the trigger
Your hands are up in the air
Whoa, whoa
Whoa, whoa
I'm losing energy
I'm going anywhere

I'll be your heartache
Running
Running from you
(Running, running, I'm running)
Running from you
(Running, running, I'm running)
Running

I can't take this silence anymore
(I can't take this silence anymore)
I can't take this silence anymore
(I can't take this silence anymore)

Whoa, whoa
Whoa, whoa
My finger stuck on the trigger
Your hands are up in the air

Whoa, whoa
Whoa, whoa
I'm losing energy
I'm going anywhere

Whoa, whoa
Whoa, whoa
My finger stuck on the trigger
Your hands are up in the air
Whoa, whoa
Whoa, whoa
I'm losing energy
I'm going anywhere
