

Never Heard Of It, Hard Headed

Have you ever felt some days
You might just fade away
You had it in your hands
And you watched it slip
Through once again
Like a broken glass stone
You're not good for anything
You're not gonna cut me down
I'm gonna play your stupid games

Cause I'm the guy
Who's always wasted everything
You can try to stop me
Stepping in the rain
Cause I'm so

Hard-headed idiotic self-centered
It's ironic nothing ever mattered to me
Till the time you thought you knew me
I know you really want it
That's just the fun of it
You'll keep on coming back
It's not a promise it's a fact

As time goes by
You made the choices
We all know are right
You're so cool
You'll probably smoke some pot
And then drop out of school
But what do I care
And what do I know
Stabbed in the back as soon
As we watched you go
As soon as we watched you go

Cause I'm the guy
Who's always wasted everyday
You can try to stop me
Stepping in the rain
Cause I'm so

Hard-headed idiotic self-centered
It's ironic nothing ever mattered to me
Till the time you thought you knew me
I know you really want it
That's just the fun of it
You'll keep on coming back
It's not a promise it's a fact

Hard-headed idiotic self-centered
It's ironic nothing ever mattered to me
Till the time you thought you knew me

I'm another lost cause
And I owe it to myself
You can take your good will shit
And go lie to someone else

Cause I'm the guy

You can try to stop me
Stepping in the rain
Cause I'm so

Hard-headed idiotic self-centered
Till the time you thought you knew me

Hard-headed idiotic self-centered
It's ironic nothing ever mattered to me
Till the time you thought you knew me

Hard-headed idiotic self-centered
It's ironic nothing ever mattered to me
Till the time you thought you knew me
