

Never Heard Of It, It's Not Possible

It's not possible
you said the words yourself and I feel nothing but ashamed We're still holding out this catalyst of doubt and all I ever get is the blame

Take me away
Take me away where I want to be

Tell the world that I'm not listening
Turn it off for lack of reason
Different faces places that I can't explain

It's not possible
but damn it would be nice If I could take away the past t's not possible
no matter what the price Count on me to finish last

Take me away
Take me away where I want to be

Tell the world That I'm not listening
Turn it off for lack of reason
Different faces places that I can't explain
All these years think it's time I faced it Once again the best I've tasted Insulation keeps me here again
My only friend

It's not possible
Borderline illogical
but who are you to really say
It's not possible
Borderline illogical
I don't really want to wake
