

New Direction, Fire

[Chorus:]

I can feel the fire shut up in my bones,
like Jeremiah, it won't leave me alone.
I can feel the fire shut up in my bones,
like Jeremiah, it won't leave me alone.

[Verse 1:]

Something down inside of me, I can't hold me peace, no, all I know it feels good to me way down in my bones.
I wanna run, I wanna scream, I wanna shout, and throw up my hands,
I'm feeling something special that you may not understand.

[Chorus]

[Verse 2:]

I've got something that will keep me,
and I've got something that make me strong,
I've got something that will hold me,
and that something won't leave me alone.
I wanna run, I wanna scream, I wanna shout, and throw up my hands,
I'm feeling something special that you may not understand.

[Chorus]

[Rap:]

I can feel the fire moving deeply down into my soul, warming up my elements where my spirit was cold.
It got my bones spiritually heated because I have been treated with God's holy anointing which was something that I needed.
I excel to another level, I'm serving God and coming against this lying devil, how could I fail 'cause I've got this whole armor on,
I'll be like Jeremiah warming up your soul and never leave you alone.

[Vamp 1:]

It feels like fire shut up in my bones.
It feels like fire shut up in my bones.

[Vamp 2:]

It feels like fire, fire, fire, fire.

[Ending:]

It feels like fire.
