

New Eden, Epitaph

As I sit and journal my life
I wish on my dying breathe
That we as one won a new day for this world upon my death Time sleeps on forever these words the last words I'll say

Read my epitaph - heed my epitaph

Light shines on my death-bed a last wish is to write These secrets that I give you are for all of mankind Before I sleep on forever heed these words, learn the truth

Read my epitaph - heed my epitaph

Reason foretold - season of old

My words will tell my world your hell

Fearless ending darkness goodbye
Feeling empty my turn to die

Bravely ending my light goodbye
Feeling empty my turn to die

Read my epitaph - heed my epitaph

Leaving this world reason for all
