

New Model Army, I Wish

Today seems so special like a beginning or an end
And there's so many thousand people here
After all the grey days we're shining once again
And I wouldn't be anywhere else in the world
We never want to fight you, we only want to love
Ch: I wish it could always be like this
I wish I could always be in love

The world reflects the passion in your grey eyes
And I see them shine
You raise up your arms like you believe that you can fly
And I want you so much now
I never want to hurt you - I only want to love
Ch: I wish it could always be like this
I wish I could always be in love
