

New Order, Your Silent Face (Live At Bbc)

A thought that never changes
Remains a stupid lie
It's always been just the same
No hearing nor breathing
No movement, no calling
Just silence

Rise and fall of shame
A search that shall remain
You asked me where I'd been
I said I didn't care

Sound formed in a vacuum
May seem a waste of time
It's always been just the same
No hearing no breathing
No movement no colors
Just silence

The rise and fall of shame
The search that shall remain
You asked me what you'd seen
I said you didn't care
