

New People, Better Ways

I know why
There are many better ways to say goodbye

What if I
I still have the courage, we don't have the time

I keep wondering what if you weren't
Such an uptight girl
I keep wondering what if I were
A better listener

I don't mind
I made peace with all the things I left behind

What if I
I still have the courage, we don't have the time

I keep wondering what if you weren't
Such an uptight girl
I keep wondering what if I were
A better listener

I keep wondering...
I keep wondering

(Ooh, is that what you're about?)
(Ooh, is that what you're about?)
