

New West, IYKYK

Words, they say too much
But then again, never enough
If you know, then you know I'm with you
Does the look in my eyes say "I'm with you"?

While I try to describe
How I feel tonight
While I try to find the perfect words
Know I love you

Words get in the way
So much of us lost in translation
Oh, if you know, then you know I'm with you
Does the look in my eyes say "I'm with you"?

While I try to describe
How I feel tonight
While I try to find the perfect words
Know I love you

While I try to describe
How I feel inside

While I try to describe
How I feel tonight
While I try to find the perfect words
Know I need you

While I try to find the perfect words
Know I love you
