Newton Faulkner, I Need Something

I need something to believe in 'Cause I don't believe in myself And I'm sick and tired of getting nowhere Guess it'll all work out

And I don't mind anymore And I don't mind anymore

And I need someone to put my trust in 'Cause I ain't trusting myself And I'm scared of failure So scared of success I guess it'll all work out

And I don't mind anymore And I don't mind anymore

I need something to believe in 'Cause I don't believe in myself And I'm sick and tired of getting nowhere I guess it'll all work out

And I don't mind anymore And I don't mind anymore
