

NF, Time

even if we both break down tonight
and you say you hate me
and we go to bed angry
I know everything will be alright
I'll everything will be alright
I'll be here waiting
I promise I am changing
I just need

a little time to show you I am worth it I know that I can be a difficult person I am a stress case drive you up the wall when I am working actually, I'm probably worse when I am not you don't deserve it make you nervous cause you know I'ma break soon every time I do, I say something that hurts you actin' like I am gone but we both in the same room I don't like to be wrong which I know you relate to and I know I make you feel like you're at the end of your road that's just the pride talkin' isn't it? cause both of us know I am the definition of wreck, if you look into my soul comes a lot of mistakes I wish I knew how to erase when I am afraid, might get distant and I push you away but no matter the case I'ma do whatever it takes even if

I know everything will be alright
I'll everything will be alright
I'll be here waiting
I promise I am changing

time
I need time
I just need time
time, time

way before I bought you the ring we were fighting back and forth like you were wearin' the thing 2 passionate people not afraid to say what they think lead to passionate conversation whne it's hard to agree you know me well sittin; on the edge of my seat lookin' at life, overanalyzin' everything always depressed, tryn fina a better version of me searching for soemthin I know's prolyl right in front of my feet stubborn as me maybe not, but you're close to it got a lot of issues I am tryna something that's worth doin' whne I know you been there for me through all of my worst moments and I know it hurts knowing that I carry this weight on my chest making it difficult for me to open up and connect a lot of regrets I apologize for all of the stress that's not what I meant to do you know I love you to death

I need time
time, time
