

Nicci Templeton, What Should I Wish For

I could have worlds
Where I was king
And the girls man
You haven't seen anything

So what would I wish for
I'm trying to think so hard
I know it isn't a castle
Castles crumble into the sea
Is it money
Can't take that with me honey

Now I feel a warmth
Like a hobo's blanket
Sent from heaven
To warm up just a piece
Of him freezing in hell

I feel you, I feel you, I feel you
No matter what words or wherever you are
I will always feel you

My sweet angel, all I need is you, fly so happy little dragonfly
