

Nicholis Louw, Please Don't Cry (Danette Se Song)

I just lose it sometimes I know it
I wish I was more like you
You've grown so beautiful such an angel
I hate the way I've been to you

But somehow you always seem to forgive me
And somehow it always breaks my heart
And I only wish I can stop and think twice
All the time
But I'm not like that

Please don't cry when I freak out
Please don't cry when I hurt you
It's just me and I am wrong
But I don't mean it
Please don't cry when I freak out
Please don't cry when I hurt you
It's just me but I'm not strong enough to tell you

You know what gets me is your virtue
I've never known such a pure of heart
And how I love your way of gentle
I've called you dumb but you're so smart

I just lose it sometimes I know it
I wish I was more like you
