

Nick Black, Hollow

Isn't it right?
Isn't it great?
Pick up the pieces together again
Don't forget
Have no regrets
It only leaves you hollow
Wasn't it right?
Wasn't it fear?
I think that I thought that you were gone but you're here
Whatever I said
Whatever I did
Only left me hollow
You're wasting time but so am I
The pictures on the wall
Wherever you go
You and I both know
That I will follow
Wasn't it twice?
Wasn't it a shame?
Thought it was you
But I'll take all the blame
Only yesterday
Was it just today
Will it be tomorrow
Didn't it shine?
Wouldn't it fade?
Was it a difference that you and I made
And if you forget
To have your regrets
It only leaves you hollow
You're wasting time but so am I
The pictures on the wall
Wherever you go
You and I both know
That I will follow
Your wasting life
And so am I
We stumble and we fall
Whenever you go
You and I both know
It will leave me hollow
