

Nick Black, Sorry

Sorry if I hurt you with anything I said
Sorry when you needed me I chose myself instead
I was wrong... Did you stay too long?
Sorry I didn't listen to every word you ever said
Sorry that I spent so much time living in my head
Sorry I gave you everything...
You know I would do anything for you...
Did you stay too long?
I'm not sorry anymore for the way I was before
And as far I'm concerned I'd say we're even
I'm not sorry anymore,
There's a change you can't ignore
There's a lesson to be learned
I'd say we're even
Must've said I'm sorry a hundred thousand times
For everything that I'm to blame didn't I apologize?
I was wrong... Did you stay too long?
Sorry if I'm boring you or getting in your way...
Sorry may be meaningless but I'll say it any way
I'm sorry I gave you everything,
You know I would do anything for you...
Did you stay too long?
I'm not sorry anymore for the way I was before
And as far I'm concerned I'd say we're even
I'm not sorry anymore,
There's a change you can't ignore
There's a lesson to be learned
I'd say we're even
I'm not about to go down by myself...
I'm not about to go down for someone else...
I'm not about to go down by myself...
If I go down, I'll be taking you with me!
I'm not sorry anymore for the way I was before
And as far I'm concerned I'd say we're even
I'm not sorry anymore,
There's a change you can't ignore
There's a lesson to be learned
I'd say we're even
