

Nick Carter, Angel In My Bed

Still lost in the moment in time when your body felt so right and I can't breathe.
It was all complete.

Touch your hand and feel your heartbeat.

Can't believe you're here with me. Oh oh, you make my heart weak.

Can't believe that you're here with me when you deserve the best.

I may have doubted God above, but for you it must be said.

There's an angel in my bed in my arms is where she lays.

There's an angel in my bed and I pray she will always stay.

There's an angel in my bed here to see me thru.

I never believed in miracles 'till the day that I met you.

Softly wave upon my shoulder.

Feels so warm with you much closer to me.

Am I your dream?

Your skin so soft against my body, and that's why just you and me.

Girl you are my queen.

Mood aligns us, mood assists us.

A special night for me to have the one that I've searched for right here next to me.

There's an angel in my bed in my arms is where she lays.

There's an angel in my bed and I pray she will always stay.

There's an angel in my bed here to see me thru.

I never believed in miracles 'till the day that I met you.

Cause you are my angel.

Oh oh, won't you be mine?

There's an angel in my bed in my arms is where she lays.

There's an angel in my bed and I pray she will always stay.

There's an angel in my bed here to see me thru.

I never believed in miracles 'till the day that I met you.

There's an angel, there's an angel.
