

Nick Carter, Never Break My Heart (Not Again)

I know
That me and you were never meant to be.
But the real enemy beats inside of me
How could you
Let me down
But it's not your fault it's what my heart allowed

I can't take it
Feel like I'm breaking down
What I thought was true happiness was a lie so the next time won't be the next time I'm telling you

You'll never break my heart you're never gonna break my heart my heart again
Not again
You'll never break my heart you're never gonna break my heart my heart again
Not again
Cause I gave up on Love it's the fakest friend to me
Next one will never do what you did to me me
I swear it's a love-hate type chemistry
You'll never break my heart you are never gonna break my heart my heart again not again
You'll never ever ever break my heart again
You'll never ever ever break my heart again not again

Every Late night fight I'll let you win, right
Just to hear you nag, I don't do nothing right
I wished I'd let it go
But I just want it more
I don't know why I gotta stay with you
Thinking to myself, I've got to see it through
You never wanted me
I don't need your sympathy no

I can't take it
Feel like I'm breaking down
What I thought was true happiness was a lie so the next time won't be the next time I'm telling you
