Nick Cave, Black Crow King

Mmmmm Mmmmm Mmmmm I am the black crow king Mmmmm Mmmmm Mmmmm I am the black crow king Keeper of the nodding corn Bam! Bam! Bam! Bam! All the hammers are a-talking All the nails are a-singing So sweet and low.

You can hear it in the valley Where live the lame and the blind They climb the hill out of its belly They leave with mean black boots on.

"I just made a simple gesture They jumped up and nailed it to my shadow My gesture was a hooker You know, my shadow's made of timber."

And the storm is a-rolling And the storm is a-rolling All down on me.

And I'm still here rolling after everybody's gone And I'm still here rolling after everybody's gone Ah'm still here rolling and I'm left on my own The blackbirds have all flown! Everyone's rolled on!

I am the black crow king Keeper of the trodden corn I am the black crow king Won't say it again And the rain it raineth daily. Lord And wash away my clothes I surrender up my arms To a company of crows I am the black crow king I won't say it again

And all the thorns are a-crowning King ruby on each spine And the spears are a-sailing O my o my.

And the storm is a-rolling And the storm is a-rolling All down on me.

And I'm still here rolling after everybody's gone And I'm still here rolling after everybody's gone I'm still here rolling and left on my own Those blackbirds they have all flown and I am on my own.

I am the black crow king Keeper of the forgotten corn The King! The King! I'm the king of nuthin' at all The hammers are a-talking The nails are a-singing The thorns are a-crowning him The spears are a-sailing
The crows are a-mocking
The corn is a-nodding
The storm is a-rolling
The storm is a-rolling
The storm is a-rolling down
The storm is a-rolling down
The storm is a-rolling
Down on me
Rolling down on me
Rolling down on me.
