

Nick Jonas, Area Code

I'm in your area code
I hit you up, are you alone?
So many places this could go
I'm fucked up, you don't even know
Baby, it's better that you don't
I'm guessing now my cover's blown

Don't know why I do it, but I do
Yeah, every time I have a drink or two
Get it bad of you
And I don't know why I do it but I do
Yeah, all this liquor bringing out the truth

And I, we both remember what we said
But let's agree to just forget
It's late night, you should go to bed
You say I never been good for you
You can't deny I gave it good to you
We made it unforgettable, crazy
And I'm hoping I could let you in

Don't know why I do it, but I do
Yeah, every time I have a drink or two
Get it bad of you
And I don't know why I do it but I do
Yeah, all this liquor bringing out the truth
Don't know why I do it, but I do
Don't know why I do it, but I, but,
