

Nick Jonas, Teacher

Right when I think I finally got you figured out
You turn around, blow my mind
So frustrated, girl, you make me wanna shout
And it's the only just the start of the night

And I'm like, oh my, oh my, oh my, oh my God
Oh my, oh my, oh my, oh my God

Why you do me wrong?
Why you do me wrong?
When you wear that dress, oh my heart, it just can't take it anymore
Why you do me wrong?
Why you do me wrong?
When you act like this, it's like your mama never taught you how to love

So let me teach you

Take one step forward then we take a couple back
But you know I'm gonna keep up the place
This game we're playing make me wanna break the rules
Can't let you get away from me

Oh my, oh my, oh my, oh my God /2x

Why you do me wrong? /2x
When you wear that dress, oh my heart, it just can't take it anymore
Why you do me wrong? /2x
When you act like this, it's like your mama never taught you how to love

So let me teach you

Dance with that body girl
'Cause everybody here is wanting your body girl
/2x

Why you do me wrong? /2x
When you wear that dress, oh my heart, it just can't take it anymore
Why you do me wrong? /2x
When you act like this, it's like your mama never taught you how to love
/2x

So let me teach you /2x
