

Nick Jonas, Voodoo

Get down
You're shaking his solid ground
You're running me wild
And breaking me down, down
Desperate now
Way you do it, I don't know how
You're drinking me dry
Throwing fuel on a fire, fire

And we ain't enough
If this is what you call love
I swear I'm better alone
I feel your claws sinking in
Getting under my skin like

Voodoo /2x
You got me coming right back
And just like that, got me coming right back like
Voodoo /2x
You got me too attached, keep me coming right back
And I know that I ain't fucking with your voodoo
Voodoo /2x

And all my life
Can't hold on to you this tight
Phasing you out
Just a face in the crowd, baby

And this ain't enough
If this is what you call love
I think I'm better alone
I feel your claws sinking in
Getting under my skin like

Voodoo /2x
You got me coming right back
And just like that, got me coming right back like
Voodoo /2x
You got me too attached, keep me coming right back
And I know that I ain't fucking with your voodoo
Voodoo /2x

Faking the rush
Is almost like calling it love
So why are you calling it love?
Yeah why are you calling it love?

Voodoo /2x
You got me coming right back
And just like that, got me coming right back like
Voodoo /2x
You got me too attached, keep me coming right back
And I know that I ain't fucking with your voodoo
Voodoo /2x
