

Nick Mulvey, I Don't Want To Go Home

I was happy today and I was running into my own
And she saw the very light in me
She told me I could be a maker
But I'll probably make her fall what I need

If you know me, this morning
Been sleeping back alone
Dring i ...
And I don't want to go home
I don't want to go home
I don't want to go home
But sine you got more going on
Nobody's ever gone alone

One time behind a stake up
Stacked up the great?
You could see that I could be the maker
But I'll probably make her fall onto me
