

Nickelback, Slow Motion

Well I start just broke
Of a line in your tasteless joke
Whats up with that hutch youve stolen
Dont worry cause its not broken, its just swollen
Could anticipate
How youre feeling from day to day
Well about you now, thats your needing
Dont worry cause theyre laughing, and youre bleeding

Well Im drowning your ocean
Its much cooler in slow motion

Dont care where youve went
When its obvious that you bore
Im not worried cause its five minutes to your glory

Well Im drowning your ocean
Its much cooler in slow motion

Leave it up to me and I will
Be the one here to see that you stand still
Everyone sees your eyes getting wider
Everyone here believes youre a liar

Well I start just broke
Of a line in your tasteless joke
Right after youve punched a hole in
Dont worry cause its not broken, its just swollen
Could anticipate
How youre feeling from day to day
Since its obvious that you bore me
I Im not worried cause its five minutes to your glory

Leave it up to me and I will
Be the one here to see that you stand still
Everyone sees your eyes getting wider
Everyone here believes youre a liar, youre a liar
