

Nicki French, Secrets

Don't go so many things that I must know
Please stay there's too many things that we must say
I don't wanna waste your precious time
But since when he's talking such a lie
You know that all my love is yours
Is your love mine?

Tell me the secrets of your heart
Show me the way you feel
Don't keep the secrets of your heart
Kept deep in the dark make them real
I know the silence of your soul
Makes you a mystery
But it's the secrets of your heart
That I want to set free

Be true do you believe the things I do
Be strong where in your life do I belong
Now you won't look me in the face
We're running out of time no other days
But will my love for you be lost
Without a trace

Tell me the secrets of your heart
Show me the way you feel
Don't keep the secrets of your heart
Kept deep in the dark make them real
I know the silence of your soul
Makes you a mystery
But it's the secrets of your heart
That I want to set free

Tell me the secrets of your heart
Show me the way you feel
Don't keep the secrets of your heart
Kept deep in the dark make them real

Tell me the secrets of your heart
Show me the way you feel.
