

Nico & Vinz, That's How You Know (feat. Kid Ink

You were big city living; girlfriend like Eva Mendes
Until your side chick called you up, said when she might be back in Now you're alone and crying; inside, you're slowly dying
Cause Magic Mike just got your key

That's how you know you fucked up /4x

Bebe

You were the man in college, got a degree in awesome
And had more zeroes in your bank than all the Matrix College
Now you're in your mama's basement, cause you spend every paycheck
The IRS your new best friend

That's how you know you fucked up /4x

You had it going for you; moved out to California
Got lost in money, drugs, and women; now for all your dollars
Now Nico's unemployed and Vinz's love for coke destroyed him
So now we back in Norway

That's how we know we fucked up /4x
Fucked up, fucked up

Kid Ink

You used to be the big spender, grabbing the check every dinner
Showing out to your girlfriend's best friends just so they could wish they was with you (wait)
You ain't wanna hit the club, but the pressure got you out trying to get a table and a picture
Everybody Snapchat pictures, but ain't nobody trying to drive on the liquor, nah nah
I been getting so twisted, tie-dye, bye-bye
Think we should leave after I pay
But you forgot to save cash for the valet

That's how you know you fucked up (that's how you know)
That's how you know you fucked up
That's how you know you fucked up (that's how you know)
That's how you know you fucked up (that's how you know)
That's how you know you fucked up
(That's how you know you fucked up, you fucked up)
That's how you know you fucked up
(That's how you know you fucked up, you fucked up)
