

Nicola Hitchcock, I Forgive Me

Listen to me
Far as I can see you're a lot like me
And since I thought you knew
Just to tell a soul
Thought it wouldn't be it shouldn't be a sin
Forgive me

For thinking I ever did you wrong I forgive me
For thinking I ever did you harm I forgive me

Listen to you
Silence is in me and I meant no harm
And since I know you well
Just a little thing like this shouldn't be it shouldn't be a sin
Forgive me

When you find what you need I won't be there
Caught up in the world I'm trying
