

Nicotine, You Have Gone Away

Have you ever gone to sleep with Marilyn
And you woke up fuckin' late at night
And you thought about it the time you spent in Oregon
And you told about it the story I heard a thousand times before
And as you saw her, she needed to have you inside her
But almost every time you couldn't make her satisfied
As I saw her in the bed, you have gone away
