

Night In Gales, Bleed Afresh

i walk on ways of sadness to see the frustration of truth hope that it will be endless to see that i am real you say i'm a sacred one one to devastate
my soul will bleed afresh my echo is one of few thoughts full of helplessness captured and deceased a god should never be so blind... but there's a time when everything falls apart won't someone tell me that i'm just created won't someone tell me in time won't someone call a break of breath in my ear i took this way into reality
war of the merciless won't they understand what i feel i just touched the chain of the moon
a chain that beats me down
my soul has seen the view
