Nightwish, Tutankhamen

As the sun sets beyond the pyramids To greet me with its rays I place my hand on my forehead To see your chariots' flames

Watch me kneel before you Hear the cats meowing in the temple They yearn the milk you cascaded As I yearn that promised treasure

Treasure of Tutankhamen I am the one it is Take me with you through the stargate To the valley of the kings

Sacrifice me Tutankhamen And let me be your queen Take me Tonight and always We'll breed to fill all earth

Three milleniums it took me to guard your rest Your slumber in mighty Phoenix's nest But tonight the darkness in the tomb has perished For Carter has come to free my beloved

[Repeat chorus]
