

Nikki Hassman, Patience

Your voice is haunting me
Afraid and yet intrigued
One more step won't hurt
I'll get out before I'm burned

Reaching for just one touch
But then it's not enough
I feel this is wrong
Or is this where I belong

Chorus
Deep in the heart of fire
In ashes I would find you
Descending for your fall
Oh, I will meet you there
Deep in your darkest night
With ashes burning around you
With patience on your shoulder
Till you know I'm there

Sometimes I can't control
Emotions overflow
Before I even choose
I do what I don't want to do

You are just like a fire
With blazing colors
I can see your sense of grace
Impossible to embrace

Repeat chorus

Bridge
You make me reckless
You make me feel right
I feel heat
And I want it to be mine
Oh, patience

Repeat chorus 2x
