

Nikki Webster, Strawberry Kisses

from the bottom of my heart boy i've gotta tell you this since the day we've been apart you're the only one I miss i'm like a tree with no roots I just can't live without you, yeah yeah thought we were just a summer romance nothing but a passing fling seemed my heart had other plans now i'm a puppet on a string don't leave me dangling out there boy can't you tell how much I care still see the sunlight in your hair, oh, oh chorus:

i've been missing your stawberry kisses
cuz nothing's as sweet
the taste still drives me crazy i've been wishing my strawberry kisses could fly through the wind to you from me

there's no question at all boy, your tops on my list i'm falling head over toes at the thought of your lips

I know you're cryin no no can't write those pretty words to show me how you feel deep inside -- but oh-oh

chorus:
to you from me

I know what i'll do when i find you you're gonna make me your girl youre gonna be mine even if I gotta search the whole world

chorus:
