

Nikolo Kotzev, Caught Up In A Rush

Rush, just like I told you

Can you read my fortune now teller
I can see the full moon on the rise
I'm living in a big house, I tell you
I need another woman and I tell you no lie
Tell me that you really care
You don't really have to worry
Your painted smile will let you in
I don't want to hear your story
Now tell me what you'll do for me
And I will let you in
I'm caught up in a rush

(I'm caught up in a rush)

I'm caught up in a rush

I'm living in a day dream
I'm living with the man inside myself
I'm gonna cause a big scene
Cause I have never been second best

I'm leaving my body
I'm leaving my body for a higher place
And I'm looking for someone
Someone with an angel face
You don't really have to worry
Your painted smile will let you in
I don't want to hear your story
Now tell me what you'll do for me
And I will let you in
I'm caught up in a rush

(I'm caught up in a rush)

I'm caught up in a rush

I think I found the combination
I think I found the lightning tree
It ain't my imagination
I always see what I see
It's a lifetime achievement
And I need another lover
For to set me free
I don't need no assistance
Cause I'm living, I'm living deep,
Deep inside of me, yeah
I'm living in a day dream

(I'm living)

I don't live in the future

(Listen to the prophet)

I don't live in the past

(There's a truth in what he says)

So why should I worry ?

(He gives a fair warning)

I'll be here to the last

(So, try to understand
Ignorance won't make you wise of smart
Pay attention and save your life, your life)

I think I found the combination
I think I found the lightning tree
It ain't my imagination
I always see what I see
It's a lifetime achievement
And I need another lover
For to set me free
I don't need no assistance
Cause I'm living, yes I am
I'm leaving my body
I'm leaving my body for a higher place
And I'm looking for someone
Someone with an angel face
Caught, cause I'm caught up in a rush
I'm caught up in a rush
You know I am, I'm caught up in a rush ...
