Nina Nastasia, Underground

I'm awake I know 'cause i'm afraid Of every little thing It makes me think of you

You're so sereen Underneath your wit You're watching me Tripping my saddle shoes

Better shoot me down... To that bold, bold underground Save me Save me

Quiet now It's time to say your prayer God is near They say he's watching you

Better shoot me down... To that bold, bold underground Save me

Better shoot me down... To that bold, bold underground Save me Save me

I believe Shhh... I believe Shhh... I believe Shhh... I believe Shhh... Shhh...
