

Nirvana, Born In A Junkyard

I'm long gone from vertical
Somewhere South is stopping me
I'm long gone from the American Dream
You may decide it's not for me
I'm long gone but I'll let you through
You may decide it's not for me
I'm long gone, but I'll let you through
You may decide there's nothing theree

Born in a junkyard (x8)
Gone

I'm long gone but I'll let you through
You may decide that it's not that good
I'm long gone but I'll let you leave
You may decide on stopping me

I'm long gone but I'll let you through
You may decide that it's not that good
I'm long gone but I'll let you leave
You may decide on stopping me
