

NITA STRAUSS, Digital Bullets ft. Chris Motionless

From your refuge you're a warrior in mind
Throwing stones behind the glass
You couldn't cut it so your only goal in life
Is tearing down and paying back

Never knowing what it's like
To chase a dream, to sacrifice
You can't stand to see them win

Fire away
Fire away
You don't have to show your face
Shoot em down
Shoot em down
You can't wait to take them out
Firing round after round after round
Firing round after round after round
You'll be safe and sound
Firing those digital bullets

Easy prey, you got a way to make them bleed
You know just how to hit a nerve
Hiding out under the spotlight that you feed
It's time you get what you deserve

Say anything to get a rise
It's as high as you can climb
Full of bark with zero bite

Fire away
Fire away
You don't have to show your face
Shoot em down
Shoot em down
You can't wait to take them out
Firing round after round after round
Firing round after round after round
You'll be safe and sound
Firing those digital bullets

Go on and throw your stones
Go on and throw your stones
Bring it!

Fire away
Fire away
You don't have to show your face
Shoot em down
Shoot em down
You can't wait to take them out
Firing round after round after round
Firing round after round after round
You'll be safe and sound
Firing those digital bullets
