

Nitty Gritty Dirt Band, Losin' You

there's no such thing as sleep for jealous fools and being jealous about someone like you is sort of foolish too the life you choose is the life you want I guess losin' you might be the best thing yet the longest day I live I'll still be sufferin' from the shame while in the gutter you were makin' yourself quite a name the loneliness is all that I regret

patiently I sit at home and wait, wonderin' where you are and what you are doin' has turned my love to hate I wanted you and you wanted anyone you could get
