

Nixons, Latest Thing

You're such a pretty one before you come undone
I got something for you
You seem so far away you beg against the fade
You're so special

And I won't be something you're not
Come up here and tell me everything
Don't you know you're the latest thing

Tasting pure like heavens waterfall
So delicious
You were here they wanted you somewhere
You're in your own world
(But I'm glad for the mistake)

And I won't be something you're not
Taking for granted the gots
Come up here and tell me everything
You never did hear me say
Come up here and tell me everything
Don't you know you're the latest thing

You're such a pretty one before you come undone
I got something for you
Criminal, your sin ain't what you did
It's what you didn't do
Come up here and tell me everything
You never did hear me say
Come up here and tell me everything
Don't you know you're the latest thing

You're such a pretty one before you come undone
I got something for you
