

No Angels, Say Goodbye

This goes out to all the men in the world
Who don't know how to treat their ladies
So listen

Who's sorry now?
You'd better learn how
To say goodbye
All changes gone
You'd better move on
And try to find another love
It's time to say goodbye

What is wrong with you?
Why you're acting like a fool?
You don't need to hide
All the things you keep inside
Cause now I know
Baby I was right
You were playing with my mind
And I already know
So now it's time to go

Who's sorry now?
You'd better learn how
To say goodbye
All changes gone
You'd better move on
And try to find another love
It's time to say goodbye

All the time I thought
Boy I messed it up
Cause you tried to blame me for
Not trusting you no more!
But now I see
All the time you lied
And all the tears that I have cried
While you were having fun
Cause I was not your only one

Who's sorry now?
You'd better learn how
To say goodbye
All changes gone
You'd better move on
And try to find another love
It's time to say goodbye

Now I wanna let you know
I don't need you anymore
Cause I don't need your lies
Now pay the price
For tearing up my heart
I don't need your poor excuse
Baby this time you will lose
Cause now I'm strong to carry on
Without you by my side

Who's sorry now?
You'd better learn how
To say goodbye
All changes gone
You'd better move on
And try to find another love
