

No Assembly Required, Cold

i can see my face still drowning in weakness i keep hold i can hear my voice still trembling no sense to yell for more i can feel my body trying escaping from this pain i'll still find my way back out there even in the...

escaping from this pain
even in the cold

cold, cold, cold, cold cold, this ain't enough to stop me cold, is that all you got for me? cold, why cant you get to me?

cold, you ain't always gonna win i can see my hands forbidding forbidding to let go i can feel myself destructing but i refuse to go that way i can hear my heart keep pumping with this i know for sure i'll still find way back out there

with this i know for sure
even in the cold
