

No Fun At All, Not In The Mood

Was not, was not, was not in the mood
Fifty nine times the pleasure, nothing new Lost all of my curiosity
Numbness is slowly infiltrating me.

It's been a long deceptive day
It's been a long deceptive
It's been a long deceptive

I'm waking up a sleeping dog every other hour
I'm shaking down the fruit I fear, it is old and sour
I'm waking up a sleeping dog every other hour
It's been my only fragile spot and perhaps my power

Did not did not did not even like anything that was served on my behalf
Dropping ashes on your precious floor
Laughing as I'm walking out the door
