

No Innocent Victim, Forward

Forward (moving forward)
Now I walk as I'm waiting for eternity
Attained in time but beyond my own ability
My will, my will is broken
Makes the beginning easier to see
Why are your eyes so fixed
So hard to see beyond
Why are your eyes so fixed on this world
Before we're broken down
Look beyond this world
This temporary shell
Its own fading signs of hope
At times resembling hell
Look beyond this world
Its time is fading fast
Seek the things eternal
And you won't fear
To breathe your last
