

No More Kings, Girl In The Sea

We pulled up the anchor
Waving goodbye to the town that had cradled me
Two weeks now at sea
Starting to get to me, I think I'm crazy

Oh oh
There in the water
Oh oh
I'm not scared, but I oughta be

All the legends of old
The stories they told
Schemes of the dreamers
Meant nothing to be
Now my disbelief
Lay smashed at my feet
'Cause I saw the girl in the sea

Back at the harbor
Still I am swimming with her in my mind
In my Davy Jones' locker
I'll keep my secret where noone can find it

They'll never believe me
I see her so clearly

All the legends of old
The stories they told
The schemes of the dreamers
Sweet music to me
I'm lost in a dream
My heart wants to sing
All for the girl in the sea

Each day that goes by
Each wave we ride
Seems to remind me it all was a dream
I guess my memory got the best of me this time...

Oh oh
The sound so familiar
Oh oh
What could it mean?

All the legends of old
The stories they told
the Schemes of the dreamers
Sweet music to me
I'm lost in a dream
My heart wants to sing
All for the girl in the sea

All the legends of old
The stories they told
The schemes of the dreamers
Dreamers like me
I'm lost in a dream
My heart wants to sing
